

Three-Year-Old Program

MISSION STATEMENT

First Pres Preschool provides an enriched Christian learning environment that encourages cognitive, social, and emotional development as children discover and explore the world around them. Our goal is to nurture a foundation that promotes independence and confidence as an introduction to lifelong learning

CURRICULUM

The three-year-old curriculum offers a wide variety of age-appropriate activities and learning opportunities. It provides a balance of self-selected and teacher-directed activities, individual and large group activities, as well as indoor and outdoor experiences. Learning centers are created to invite children to explore, experiment, create, make connection, and ask questions. Our program is committed to providing an innovative and developmentally appropriate curriculum to help prepare each child for his/her next school experience. We use the Illinois Early Education Learning Standards and NAEYC guidelines as a foundation for our progress goals and learning targets.

DAILY PROGRAM

Monday/Wednesday/Friday: 9-11:30am

Tuesday & Thursday: 9-11:30am

Monday/Tuesday/ Thursday: 12:30-3:00pm

- Group times involving music, calendar activities, stories, creative movement, language and math experiences, teacher directed themed lessons and projects, and a group snack time.
- Free play where children choose their own center-based activities: dramatic play, puzzles & books, blocks & trucks, painting, play dough, sensory table activities, and small manipulative play.
- Outdoor play on approved playground equipment in a park-like enclosed setting or indoor play on approved equipment in our church gymnasium.

OBJECTIVES

Three-year-old children are just beginning to realize that the feelings of other people differ from their own; they are learning empathy. They are leaving the 'me' oriented world of a two year old and entering the world of peer relationships and self-control. Our main objective for this age group is to provide a solid foundation of social skills for interacting in a group setting and one-on-one with a peer. Along with strong social skills, we encourage cognitive learning in the areas of early math skills, pre-literacy, science, and music; provide opportunities for small and large gross motor skills; and foster independence and self-confidence.

- Promote social skills such as respect, kindness, and empathy.
- Enhance self-esteem through individual accomplishment.
- Learn how to value another person's rights by teaching respect for others.
- Encourage cognitive development and reasoning skills.
- Strengthen small motor skills using scissors, play-dough, and art.
- Develop an appropriate pattern of dependence and independence.
- Foster a sense of continuity between school and the outside world.
- Create a place of community, teamwork, and friendship.
- Explore creativity and self-expression.
